Poetry Open Mic at the Paterson Museum

Join in the celebration of Paterson's poetry legacy. Word Seed Inc., and the Paterson Museum invite you to join us on Saturday, April 2nd as we commemorate the beginning of National Poetry Month with our program, Power of Words: Paterson Poetry, Past and Present. Beginning at 5pm, the celebration will include readings by Paterson poets, Isabel Cruz and Jaquair Gillette. Open mic opportunities for attendees will be available. The program is in-person, at the Paterson Museum (2 Market Street). This event is free and open to all ages. This program will be the first of several poetry themed programs held at the Museum this April. Visit www.patersonmuseum.com to learn more.

The Paterson Museum, located at 2 Market Street (on the corner of Market and Spruce Streets) is in the heart of the Paterson Great Falls National Historical Park. For more information about this event, or to learn more about the Paterson Museum, visit our website <https://patersonmuseum.com/>, like us on Facebook and follow us on Instagram!
